Back to School Rally 2008 seeks support for August 2 event

The School District of University City is planning its second annual Back-To-School Rally for Saturday, August 2, on the grounds of Jackson Park Elementary School. Last year, the District gave away nearly 1,500 backpacks filled with school supplies. Local community organizations and the schools hosted booths and activities for the students and their families. This year, we are looking to give away more backpacks and include more organizations.

If you, or someone you know, would like to support or participate in the upcoming event, contact CarolAnn Cole at 314/290-4019 or email ccole@u-city.k12.mo.us to discuss the event further.

As a reminder: Please keep your information current by going to our website at <http://www.uchsaa.org/> and logging into the Online Alumni Directory.
